SCRAPBOOKS & GIFTS!

Well, another year is gone. While reflecting on this past year...opening in April, relocating the beginning of September and all the news of joy and heartache received this past year, it all went by so fast. It amazes me how blessed we are to have the family of friends and customers who come through our doors. I have taken notice of how fast the years go by and I am so thankful for my own personal love of scrapbooking. Looking at the memories I have stored, being able to recall the events in detail means so much to me and I am sure you all know exactly how I feel. Make a resolution this year to get organized, finish projects put aside and start on the new memories, we'll help if you need us.

Our hope for all of you is a Healthy, Happy and Prosperous New Year!
